PASTOR TO PERSON

ISAIAH 40:1–11

During the Christmas season there is always a sense of expectation. I remember as a kid growing up having this keen feeling of expectation for the arrival of presents and toys. Now, as an adult, I have the anticipation and expectation of seeing family from out of town and sharing a good meal, and if I'm honest, a little expectation for presents. However, I think these feelings of expectation and arrival during this season also touch on a deeper story. As Christians, we have an expectation of arrival. It's the arrival of hope. A hope found in the Word becoming flesh which gives us an expectancy not of toys, or even seeing family, but receiving new life through the gift of Jesus Christ!
